

Hans of Iceland by Victor Hugo	Hans of Iceland by Victor Hugo Read by Sonia Total running time: 13:12:03 Hans of Iceland was written in 1821 and is the very first novel written by young Victor, years before he became the great Hugo. It has all the ingredients of a gothic novel: dreadful murders by the hand of a human monster, a young hero in love with the destitute heroine, royal court-intrigues and rebellious uprising, all set in dungeons, dark towers and the untamed nature of Norway. This audio-book has been recorded as Dramatic Reading with all the voices performed by one single reader, including laughs, sobs, groans, occasional screams and a lot of growls. I hope you will enjoy listening to this adventurous journey just as much as I enjoyed recording it. (summary by Sonia) This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org. Cover picture: detail from "Norwegian Landscape with Waterfall" by Jacob Isaakszoon van Ruisdael (1628/29-1682). Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author's life +100 yrs laws. Cover design by Sonia. This design is in the public domain.	Hans of Iceland by Victor Hugo
--------------------------------	---	--------------------------------